Yellow Fever Has the Georgia City in Its Grasp.

The Worst Expected, as the Weather Turns Unfavorably.

All Who Can Leave the Stricker Town Have Fled.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Sept. 18.-It seem that the worst is to be expected of the yellow fever epidemic here. The weather took an unfavorable turn yesterday, and nothing but a heavy frost can stop th progress of the disease.

It is a coincidence that just such an epidemic was declared here seventeen years ago yesterday. Sixteen cases were under treatmen last night. The Board of Health has decided not to give the uames for publication from now on. All were resting easy, except the tailor, Johnson, and Mrs. Turner, who were dangerously ill. Surgeon Guiteras warns people from allowing citizens to spend their days in Brunswick and go out to their homes at night. He says such people will carry infection with them. One of the pathetic things of this epidemic is the numerous letters Postmaster MacBrown daily receives from the wives and mothers inquiring for their people from whom they cannot hear. In answer to these it may be said that all that could go have gone from the city or are preparing to leave

Passed Assistant Surgeon Gedding has recommended the immediate estab-lishment of a sanitary cordon to make the camp of utility and prevent the return of fresh materials. The camp will be ready to-day. It consists of six large frame buildings and two tents. A side track has been put down by the railway for the camp, and a steam disinfecting box car has been put up by Surgeon

Carter.
Surgeon Hutton, who was taken ill while at Brunswick, is under orders to return here when he recovers. Passed Assistant Surgeon Magruder is under orders to report at Brunswick. Surgeon Murray, the yellow fever expert, who was ordered from Dry Tortugas to Brunswick last week, is expected to arrive in a few days and will be placed in charge.

When there are on the ground Dr. Fayet, who is expected to arrive to-day; Dr. De Saussure, of Charleston, S. C. a volunteer yellow fever expert, and Hospital Stewards Belding, from New Orleans, and Cragg, the force will be complete, and the Government authorities believe the epidemic can be checked.

Hity-five years old. With his fifteen-year-old son by his side he was driving across an unprotected crossing at Rock-ville Centre just when the Babylon train, due at $2.2 A. M., arrived. Between the main track and the direction from which a freight train was sldctracked. At the crossing the train was cut to give an opening just a trifle wider than a wagon.

The train was coming into the station with air-brakes on, and there was no noise from the engine's exhaust pipe. Bystanders say that the bell was not rung, and that the whistle had not been blown.

Meal did not see or hear the train, and drove his horse directly in front of it. The horse was thrown thirty feet on the opposite side of the track and killed. The wagon was dashed the other way, and with it went Mead and his boy. Mr. Mead's skull was cut open from the forehead directly over the head to the base of the brain. Those who picked him up say they could plainly see his brain.

He was removed to a store near by. Dr. Hutchinson attended him. After
